Infinite Potential.

It is the blueprint for modern living,
where cutting-edge innovation
meets timeless design.

Anantya is not just a residence;
it is an endless horizon of growth,
luxury, and connected living.

Some homes are lived in. A few are lived up to.

For years, “a class above” was a life you admired from a distance — never the one you came home to. Anantya moves that feeling to your address. The light, the air, the room to breathe, the way a home holds a whole family — all of it, quietly raised. This is what it means to live not below your dreams, but a class above.

Built to be looked up to

From the grand gated entrance to towers that stand tall against open skies, Anantya is designed to feel considered at every glance. Limited residences per floor. Elevations that carry themselves with quiet confidence. Landscaped greens and pedestrian-first pathways that make arriving home feel like an occasion.

DESIGN DETAILS

- Six stilt+14 towers with limited residences per floor
- Grand gated entrance and landscaped arrival
- Community hall and open landscaped greens
- Dedicated pedestrian-friendly zones for a calmer, safer campus

First-in-class affordable housing with dedicated car parking.

Car parking is all but unheard of in affordable housing across Haryana.

At Anantya, it comes standard — not as the reason to buy, but as the proof of a promise: a home built a class above thinks about everyone who lives in it. Even the car.

ARTISTIC IMAGE IS JUST FOR REPRESENTATION PURPOSE ONLY

A class above is built, not decorated.

The parts of a home you don't see are the parts that decide how long it loves you back. At Anantya, the structure, the surfaces and the fittings were chosen honestly — no shortcuts, no showmanship, nothing you'll have to explain away later.

Everything you'll actually use. Nothing you won't.

Designed in the signature True Habitat style, Anantya fosters vibrant community living with expansive open areas. It has its own commercial area, and an IGBC Platinum rating for sustainable living in the true spirit of True Habitat: Everlasting Happiness.
